Whole Group Practice- Dream Interpretation

This is the dream we used at the dream interpretation meeting to practice together.

Title: Various Episodes

I left home and went to stay at someone's house. The house was crowded with people, some were familiar faces like old childhood friends and some were family members. It seemed like a dormitory. I went to take a shower and realized that I needed to get my clothes before I go into the bathroom. When I opened my suitcase my clothes felt damp. So I just got my night gown out to put on since it was the only clothing that was dry and I put it on. This house was so crowded and people were carrying on various conversation. I felt like I needed to be in a quiet setting, I felt uncomfortable. My mom came over and I was lying down in the bed on my back looking up to the ceiling. My mom came to me and said hey what's up and I said can I go back home with you. She said yeah what's wrong. I said I just need to get some peace and quiet because there are a lot of things going on. Mom told me well you need prayer and I said yes. Then she called some people to come and lay hands on me to stand!

in agreement with us and I saw mostly family like an uncle, aunt, and some cousins. When they came to the bed, before they would touch me I said NO their hearts are not clean don't let them touch me, I don't let everybody lay hands on me. Then I got up and Mom and I went home.

#2 The dream then shifted to me leaving home to go to work and this lady and her little boy needed a ride. The lady was not old but she looked worn or streety. She asked me to drop her son off at this building and so I did. Then she told me you can go this direction to go to work, it will be quicker. So I followed her on foot so far and realized the direction she was taking me was not the right way, actually it was not going to take me to work. So I told her no this is the wrong way my job is just 2 lights away from here and I went on to work without this lady.

#3 The dream shifted to me standing in a conference room where people were lined up, I was not in line I was looking at everyone else wondering what they were doing. I looked on the wall and there was a poster that had I title on it. The poster was purple and in white letters it said "New Light Restoration." A man and his son noticed I was looking at the poster and he said "I just came from that and it was good." In my natural mind I thought he was talking about a church, but when I looked at the man I saw him getting a CD with the same title as the poster signed by Pastor Joel Osteen. I asked the man was it at a church, he never answered but Pastor Joel handed him the CD and they left.
